Customer Story

Shagbark Lumber will save almost $69,000 in energy costs this year.

Joanna Hunt, Owner and Julia Leonardo, Comptroller of Shagbark Lumber are showing other CT manufacturers and businesses how green energy can help them thrive.

Solar energy was always a goal of theirs, but they worried it might never be affordable. Then they discovered C-PACE. The program made going solar easy, even without a technology or financing background. The process was simple and Julia and Joanna loved working with the Green Bank. Now they're proving that not only is solar affordable, but that businesses with solar come out ahead.

“In business, win-win opportunities don't come very often. [C-PACE] was a no brainer. The fact that we don't have to personally guarantee it and it comes through on our property taxes made it so simple and really worthwhile.”
